

Prayer of the Faithful
June 12 - 13, 2021
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Presider: Loving God, as a community walking in faith, we give voice now to some of our needs and petitions.

Lector:

That the Church may always be about the work of planting small seeds of faith, hope and love so that with God's cultivation they will grow larger, stronger, deeper and wider, we pray...

That world leaders may work together to protect our earth and ensure that its resources are more equitably shared, we pray...

That our country may find the paths needed to foster full employment, and adequate health care for all, we pray...

That our deacons this past year, Mike Lamanna and Bill Woody, who were ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, may be filled with many graces and blessings as they continue their priestly ministry among the people of God, we pray...

That our parish's celebration of the Ignatian year may foster greater parish-wide Synodality and enhance increased collaboration among our various parish Commissions and groups, we pray...

For courage and healing upon all those who have asked for or are in need of our prayers, we pray...

For our beloved dead, among them Carolyn Zarillo, Nicole Hynes, Anna Giaccarini and Virgilio Lorenzoni, Elaine Evans Bresnahan, Jean Mooney, Eleanor and Neil Flathers, Mark Wilkie, and Maureen O'Reilly, may they experience the fullness of God's kingdom, we pray...

Presider: Almighty God, we know You are often imperceptibly at work answering our prayers, grant us patience to trust in You who is Lord forever and ever. AMEN.
