

Prayer of the Faithful
Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 2 - 3, 2021

Presider: Knowing that our God blesses us all our days, we confidently offer our prayers and petitions.

For the Church, as we come to the conclusion of this year's Season of Creation, may we continue to embrace and put into practice the teachings of Laudato Sí by making every effort to care for the earth, our common home, we pray...

For those affected by environmental injustice and the natural disasters that are caused by global warming, may the world of nations have a collective ecological conversion that will address both the causes of their plight and their current needs, we pray...

On this second anniversary of Pope Francis's encyclical, Tutti Fratelli, may we, as a nation, take to heart our Holy Father's words to care for all people in solidarity with them, particularly those currently at our borders in need of a safe home, we pray ...

For children, may adults always provide a safe, protective, and secure haven for them, embracing and blessing them in Christ, we pray...

For our St. Ignatius Parish community, as we continue our celebration of the Ignatian Year, may we come to see all things new in Christ, we pray...

For all those in need of our prayers whom we call to mind now [Pause], may they find hope in Jesus, who was made perfect through suffering, we pray...

For all our beloved dead, Jorge Alfonzo, Graciela Madrid, Edwin Donahue, Frank Faggiano, Connie Sheehan, Sarkis Keuleyan, Tom and Mary Shields, Steffano Montano, Richard Kalschuer, Rev. Philip S. Kiley, S.J., Patrick O'Brien, and Maria Teresa Hernandez Mendoza may they be crowned with glory and honor, we pray...

Presider: Loving and merciful God, hear our prayers and continue to bless us all the days of our lives through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
