

Prayers of the Faithful
Palm Sunday
March 27 – 28, 2021

Presider: As we enter Holy Week, let us humbly turn to our God in prayer with our needs and petitions.

Lector:

For the body of Christ, the Church, may we come to support more fully in word and deed the unborn, women, refugees, immigrants, the homeless, those suffering economic hardship, LGBTQ+ Catholics, and all those who feel marginalized or abandoned, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For all citizens of the world, may they come to know the need to care for one another and for our planet, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For our St. Ignatius Parish community, may we empty ourselves as Christ Jesus did to care for and serve one another with unbounded mercy, charitable forgiveness and unselfish love, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For our elect and candidates who will receive full communion into the Church at our Easter Vigil, may the sacraments help them to share ever more deeply the mind and heart of Christ, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For all in our community who have asked for our prayers, may they find support and healing in the suffering of Christ, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

For our beloved dead, among them Richard Scribner, Carol Calcagno, Patrick Caffrey & Carole Acampora, may they share fully in the victory of Christ's exaltation, we pray...Lord, hear our prayer.

Presider: Almighty God, may our Holy Week observances be filled with the reverent devotion that will help us to see you more clearly, love you more dearly, follow you more nearly through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
