

Prayer of the Faithful
Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 6 - 7, 2021

Presider: Knowing that with God's grace we can address the needs of the poor and of our world, we confidently open our hearts in prayer and petition to receive God's grace to accomplish all that is loving, right and just.

Lector:

For the Church may we generously continue to share our material and spiritual resources with the poor, trusting in God to help us provide for their needs, we pray...

For the world, that nations may cooperate in the effective distribution of the earth's bounty, seeking to provide for those most in need, we pray...

For our country's political leaders, may they work together to pass legislation that serves, not particular interests, but the common good, we pray...

For Native Americans, during this National History month celebrating their countless contributions past and present, may our nation commit itself to upholding trust and treaty responsibilities, strengthening Tribal sovereignty, and advancing Tribal self-determination, we pray...

As we celebrate Veteran's Day this weekend, we pray in gratitude for all those who have served and still serve our country, may their generous service and courageous witness continue to be a source of protection and freedom for our nation, we pray...

For our St. Ignatius parish community, may we be transformed by the Eucharist we receive to be bread for others so that we may grow as compassionate advocates of immigrants and refugees, of the poor and marginalized, and of our global environment, we pray...

For all those who have asked for our prayers among them, Emily Dean, may they experience God's healing grace, we pray...

For those who have died among them, David Frederick Hawkins, Joseph Gillis, Gerald Foley, Maureen H. Harrington, Joseph Plazonja, Joseph Palacino and all those inscribed in our parish Book of Life, may they be welcomed into God's heavenly kingdom, we pray...

Presider: Almighty God, we rely upon and eagerly await your grace to help us transform our world and hasten the salvation promised to us in and through Christ our Lord. AMEN.
