

Prayer of the Faithful
17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 24– 25, 2021

Priest: Knowing that God nourishes us on our journey through life, we now confidently give voice to our needs and petitions.

Lector:

For the Church, may we help to foster the development of all peoples ever mindful of the social teachings of the Church that call us to practice both justice and charity, we pray...

For the world, may more prosperous nations work in a spirit of generously and peace for a just allocation of the food and other resources of the earth, we pray...

For those with whom we disagree or have political or social differences, may we learn to bear with one another through love, with all humility, gentleness and patience, we pray ...

For those who hunger in body or spirit for life's necessities, may they be fed by the hand of Jesus in and through the ministries of the Church and those of our own parish community, we pray...

For those who have been recommended to us for prayer, may they experience hope and healing through our faith in Jesus, we pray...

For all our beloved dead, among them Dr. Dennis J. McCrory, Joseph E. Corcoran, Paul Marshall, Phillip Reeves, Cindy M. McCarthy, Jorge Alfonzo and Graciela Madrid, and Janie Bradshaw may they share now in the heavenly banquet, we pray...

Priest: Loving and Triune God, may we always recognize you as over all and through all and in all, one God forever and ever. AMEN.
