

Prayer of the Faithful
Trinity Sunday
May 29 – 30, 2021

Presider: We turn now to our Triune God with our needs, prayers and petitions.

Lector:

That the Church, sent to make disciples of all nations, will fervently teach all that Christ has commanded, especially by living with love for one another, we pray

That the leaders of nations will work together to ensure an end to war, terrorism and the proliferation and use of nuclear weapons, seeking new and creative ways of diplomacy to foster peace, we pray

That all peoples of the earth will recognize that we are all members of one family: children of our Triune God, we pray

That God will bless all those in our country serving in the military, gifting them with courage, hope and strength, and may these women and men experience our country's support and gratitude for all they do to protect and defend our nation, we pray

That our St. Ignatius Parish community may always model in our words and deeds the love within our Triune God. And for blessings on Matt Cortese, S.J., who will join our parish staff in late August and was ordained to the diaconate this Saturday, we pray

[ONLY AT 5:30pm MASS] That all members of the Church may feel welcome at the Eucharistic table, especially Rory Curran, who will be receiving the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time today. May the gift of the Eucharist always remind us of God's love and care for us, we pray...

That those in need of our prayers, among them those suffering from Covid 19 and other viruses, diseases and illnesses, may receive God's consolation and healing, we pray

On this Memorial weekend let us remember those who have died in war and military service and all our deceased veterans. We also remember Michael Naughton, Debbie McAndrew, Stephen Williams, Ann Nolan, Cecelia and Jacqueline Ford, Marjorie Ludwig Phipps and William Ludwig, and James F. McNiff II may God grant them eternal life. We pray

Presider: Triune God, bless our diversity and bring all peoples together with one solid purpose: to love one another in and through Christ our Lord.
AMEN.
