

Prayers of the Faithful
February 27-28, 2021
Second Sunday of Lent

Presiding: Confident that Jesus always intercedes for us, we present with great hope our prayers and needs to our one God in three divine persons.

Lector:

For the church, may we behold in Jesus' transfiguration the pledge of paschal victory, we pray...

For the world, may the angel of God stay the hand of powers and interests that would sacrifice peace in a holocaust of hate, we pray...

For our nation, may our elected leaders put aside their partisanship to begin to work together more fully for the common good, we pray...

For our candidates and catechumens, our elect, may they listen for the voice of God's Son, the Beloved, throughout their lives, we pray...

For the St. Ignatius faith community, may we always leave this holy mountain of word and worship with new vigor for bearing witness to the Gospel, we pray...

For the sick, the dying and those who mourn or are in need, may they receive the grace to place their full hope in the victory of Christ, we pray...

For all of our beloved dead, among them Katherine Doherty, Roger Paul Gaillardetz, Angelo Marchitelli, Maryann Sullivan, Ralph Wellings, William Luddy, Carol Calcagno, and James Bowdring may they walk in the presence of God in the land of the living, we pray ...

Presider: Father of all mercies, we call upon you to hear and answer our prayers, those spoken and those that lie in our hearts, in and through Christ our Lord who live and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.
AMEN.
